Section 1. That the following section changes to Chapter 1060 of the Bellbrook Municipal Code are hereby adopted with deletions shown in red in brackets and additions by italics and underlined:

§ 1060.05 is hereby amended as follows:

Effective [January 1, 1997] March 1, 2009, there is established a monthly charge of [eleven dollars ($11.00)] seventeen dollars ($17.00) for normal refuse collection within the City. All utility bill payments shall be applied first to refuse charges and any remaining amount shall be applied to water charges. Each operator of a business which generates a normal amount of refuse shall pay the normal collection charge, unless other arrangements are made pursuant to Section 1060.04(a). Each operator of a business which generates refuse in excess of the normal amount shall make arrangements for commercial collection in accordance with the provisions of these Codified Ordinances. Any residential user of the refuse collection service who generates refuse in excess of the normal amount shall pay a surcharge equal to the actual cost of collecting such excess. For the purposes of this section a normal amount of refuse shall mean a weekly accumulation which is capable of being contained in ten or fewer thirty-gallon containers, exclusive of yard waste such as grass, leaves or brush.

§ 1060.08 (a) & (b) is hereby deleted in its entirety as follows:

[(a) As a result of a monthly increase, the rate charged to customers will increase from eleven dollars ($11.00) per month to fifteen dollars ($15.00) per month effective January 1, 2008.

(b) The Utilities Billing Department is hereby authorized to increase the monthly charge to fifteen dollars ($15.00) per month with the November billing for January 1, 2008.]
