Calls of Interest:

January 5 – 1227 hours Suicide

Officers were dispatched to an address on North Linda Drive on a suicide. Upon arrival, the death was confirmed by Bellbrook Medics. The Greene County Coroner's Office was called to the scene and took custody of the body.

January 8 – 1241 hours OVI

Officers were dispatched to East Franklin Street on a possible OVI that was called in by a complainant. The officers were able to find the vehicle in question and stop it for traffic violations. The driver was arrested for OVI.

January 9 – 1239 hours Fraud

A victim came into the lobby of the police department to report that he had been scammed by an IRS scam. The victim lost money. The case is being reviewed by the Detective.

January 9 – 2350 hours Intoxicated Person

Officers were dispatched to Eckworth Drive on a subject laying in the roadway. Further investigation revealed that the subject in question was intoxicated. She gave officers false information that she had been struck by a car. Medics took the female to MVHS. She was charged with Falsification, Obstructing Official Business, and Disorderly Conduct/Public Intoxication.

Respectfully Submitted,
